Burlington Coat Factory Hires 116 Job Seekers at South Bay Workforce Investment Board Sponsored Recruitment Fair

HAWTHORNE – The South Bay Workforce Investment Board (SBWIB) conducted a highly successful two-day job recruitment fair for Burlington Coat Factory, August 22-23, at the Juanita Millender McDonald Community Center in Carson.

During the two-day fair, 284 adults and youth were processed by staff members from the Carson One-Stop Business & Career Center and then interviewed by Burlington representatives and 116 were hired. Most of the positions filled were for the new Burlington store in Carson, and 49 of the new hires were Carson residents. The SBWIB provided all pre-event support including advertising, design and distribution of flyers and site coordination.

Job recruitment events are only one of the many no cost services the SBWIB provides for large and small employers along with job search and career preparation for adults and youth through its four One-Stop Business and Career Centers serving the communities of Carson, Inglewood, Hawthorne, Torrance, Lomita, Gardena, Redondo Beach, Lawndale, Hermosa Beach, El Segundo and Manhattan Beach. The SBWIB also operates two Teen Centers in Inglewood and Hawthorne.

For further information regarding other no cost services, telephone (310) 970-7700 or visit www.sbwib.org.
